

The World's Most Trusted Agarose Brands

Lonza is the leading innovator and world's most trusted supplier of agarose. Our well known product brands set the standard in quality, purity and performance for electrophoresis.

- We are the inventors of agarose and have more than 40 years manufacturing experience
- Lonza offers supply chain value options such as vendor managed inventory and safety stock
- We are the only direct source of agarose in the world
- Other agarose suppliers are distributors of repackaged agarose
- Lonza quality standards are the highest in the industry
- We are the market leader with brands recognized worldwide
- We have the ability to customize agarose characteristics for specific applications and requirements
- Lonza Agarose is finely tuned by application for optimal performance

Lonza offers a range of agarose types designed by fragment size, sample type and application. A few of the well known Lonza Agarose products are included here. See www.lonza.com for a complete listing.
